

Northern Health is seeking a Radiologist to provide locum coverage at the University Hospital of Northern British Columbia (Prince George) on the following dates:

- March 26 to April 6

Join a robust team of nine radiologists, technicians, and support staff at the University Hospital of Northern BC to perform general radiology procedures.

Radiology services at UHNBC include:

- Breast Imaging Centre with digital mammography upgrade 2017
- Ultrasound
- MRI 1.5 Tesla Siemens upgrade 2017
- CT scanners multi detector/multi slice
- Nuclear Medicine
- Interventional Radiology

UHNBC is the Regional Hospital for Northern BC serving the population of Prince George (approx. 80,000) and is a referral center for outlying communities (total population approx. 350,000). It is the main teaching center for Medical Students in the Northern Medical Program of UBC and provides teaching for UBC Residents in several specialties. The BC Cancer Centre for the North is located on the hospital site and includes radiation and medical oncology.

Compensation: Fee for service plus 12.6% premium

Travel and Accommodation covered (at the provincial government rate).

Schedule details available upon request.

Contact:

Jacquelyn Page

Physician Recruitment and Marketing

Northern Health

299 Victoria Street, Prince George, BC V2L 5B8

250-649-7274

physicians.northernhealth.ca